

Almost, Maine

Director: Bill Christie

Stage Manager: Alisha Morris

REHEARSAL REPORT #10

DATE: 10/28/11

START TIME: 6:28pm

END TIME: 10:00pm

REHEARSAL SUMMARY: Bill worked EPILOGUE, STORY OF HOPE and SEEING THE THING on the stage. Kyle worked with Dave and Rhonda. Trent worked with Pete, Ginette, Phil and Marci.

SCENIC: As we were admiring Daniel's house, we noticed that the door appears to open outwards, but would it be more realistic to have it open inwards into the house? It would be great if we could have a snow bank behind the bench so that it can catch the snowball that Pete tosses. LeVance Rucker is joining us on fly crew. The green room vacuum cleaner has a full bag and there are no more bags to replace it. Where do we get more of those?

COSTUMES: Costume parade will take place November 4th. Actors will arrive at 6:15pm to get into costume.

HAIR/MAKEUP: none at this time

PROPERTIES: It would be good if we could get the pieces of heart in HER HEART to be 19 pieces of real slate. Bill suggested talking to roofing companies. Will you let me know what are the real props and what are not? Perhaps we can meet next week. Maybe meet with Bill after the stage management workshop on Monday? Maybe on Monday you all can agree on a deadline for finished props.

LIGHTING: Bill would like a 3-part northern light cue at the end of Epilogue where it keeps building and building.

SOUND: Alex and Trevor are meeting with Bill on Monday, October 31st at 5:45pm. Can we have a John Philip Sousa march for the costume parade on November 4th?

FRONT OF HOUSE/PUBLICITY/BOX OFFICE: We need to add LeVance Rucker on the program to the Fly Crew.

MISCELLANEOUS:

Actors: please remember not to touch the curtains. Please remember to check the green room clean-up list; Bob and Jamie forgot to clean it tonight. Also, please be working on your shop hours, Karen is the only one who has started.

If interested in purchasing a t-shirt, they will be $10.00, please have your money to me by Monday, Nov. 7th. Actors, be aware that on November 4th, be here by 6:15pm to get into costume so that we can do some costuming finalizations.

NEXT REHEARSAL: Monday, October 31st
